Sunday 22 October 2023—Paris—Rouen

Today we depart Paris and cruise along the Seine to explore northern France. A wealth of cities, towns and landscapes await us. We stop in Rouen, Normandy's capital, You quickly lose track of time in Normandy's capital. It is easy to lose track of time here, but you're reminded of it again by the 600-year-old 'Big Clock'. This is one of the world's oldest astronomical clocks and has just one hand – for the hour.

A complimentary tour will be offered.

Monday 23 October 2023—Caudebec-en-Caux

This tranquil little town is located in the heart of Normandy, not far from Rouen. A wonderful place to experience the typical French lifestyle first-hand while avoiding the hustle and bustle of the city. A complimentary tour will be offered.

Tuesday 24 October 2023—Les Andelys—Vernon

The pleasant, tranquil little town of Les Andelys occupies an idyllic spot surrounded by nature on the bank of the Seine. It is known for its castle, Château Gaillard.

A complimentary tour will be offered.

Wednesday 25 October 2023—Vernon

Today will probably be one of the highlights of your Seine cruise: you'll have the opportunity to visit Claude Monet's house and garden in Giverny. It is a magnet for art and culture lovers and those of a romantic inclination – and rightly so. The lush garden looks like a meadow of flowers straight out of an impressionist painting. The highlight is the enchanting lily pond, the subject of one of the world's most valuable paintings. And you'll be able to admire it up close – what a view! A complimentary tour will be offered.

Thursday 26 October 2023—Paris

We return to Paris. Free time for sightseeing, shopping or visit art galleries. There is always so much to do.

Friday 27 October 2023—Paris bronze final

Enjoy more of the city today before we transfer to the bronze final of the Rugby World Cup.
